

Please do not impose the "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana residents. I have been very happy with my quiet phone, and would prefer to stay that way.

Before Indiana started their "no call" list I was getting multiple calls every week from businesses I had a "relationship" with, all for things I did not want. If I want something from them, I will phone them.

Thank you.